

Dear Parents/Guardians,

We are running a “Free Book for your pre-school” campaign with a publishing company. They will make a FREE personalised book for our Pre-school. “A Day at YourPreSchoolName” is a wonderful tale of everyday Pre-school activities with all the children and staff starring as the main characters (with their names and photos!).

1. If you wish your child to be included you need not do anything.

2. If you don't wish your child to be included in the book please let us know BEFORE

NOTE: You are only giving your authorisation for your child to be/not be featured in the book - there is NO OBLIGATION for you to buy a copy.

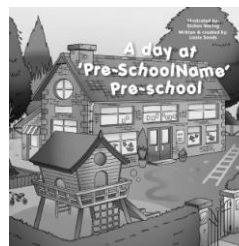

When our free book arrives you can view it and will have the opportunity to purchase your own copy for just £11.95 (incl. P&P)

This is a truly unique keepsake of your child's Pre-school years which will be treasured and read time and time again –

Lets make books fun with Saronti! You can visit Saronti's website at www.saronti.com for an example of the book, family fun, tips and much more...
