penguins
by Lucy
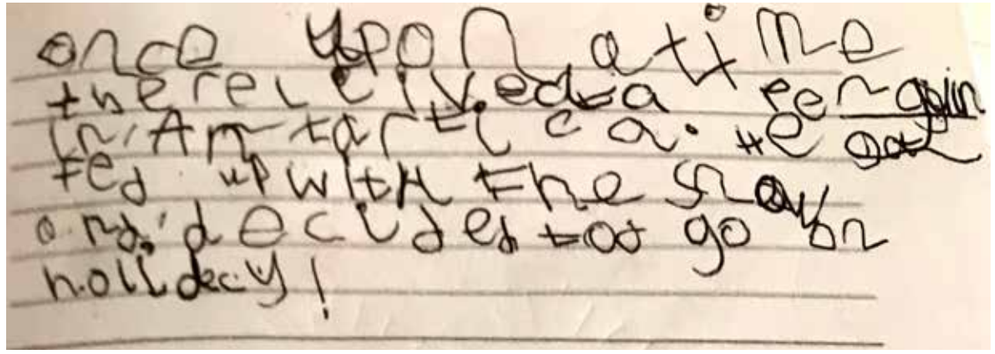
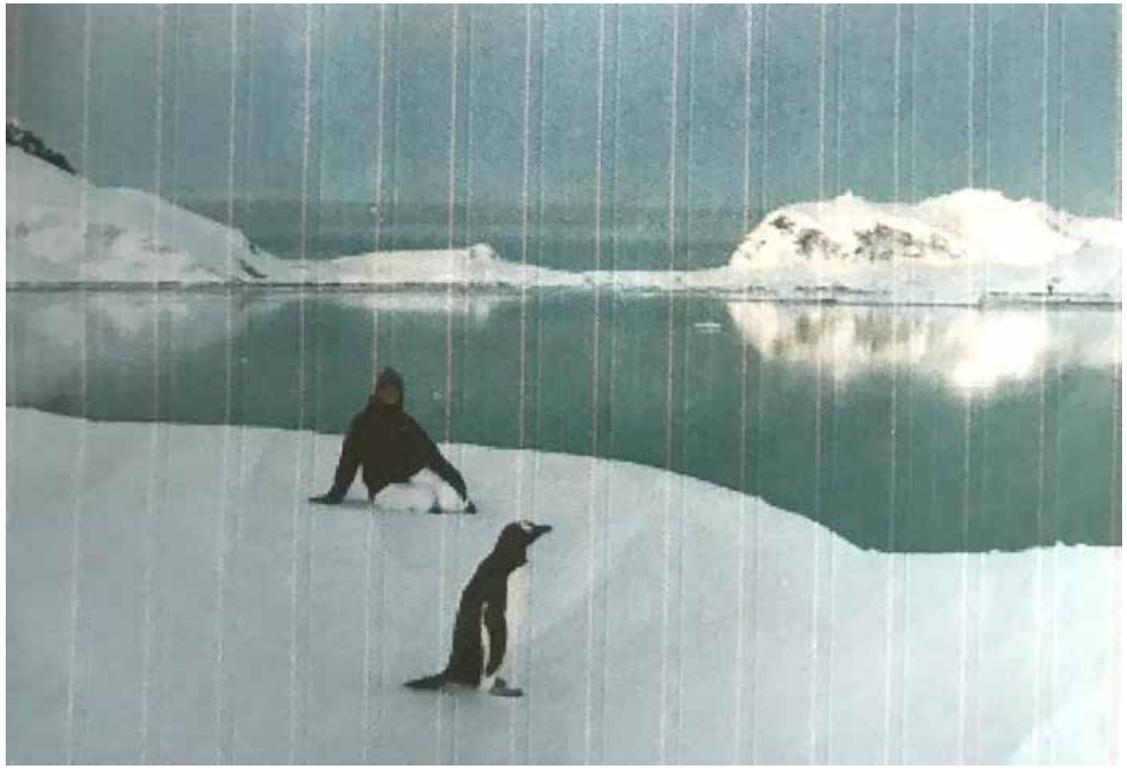
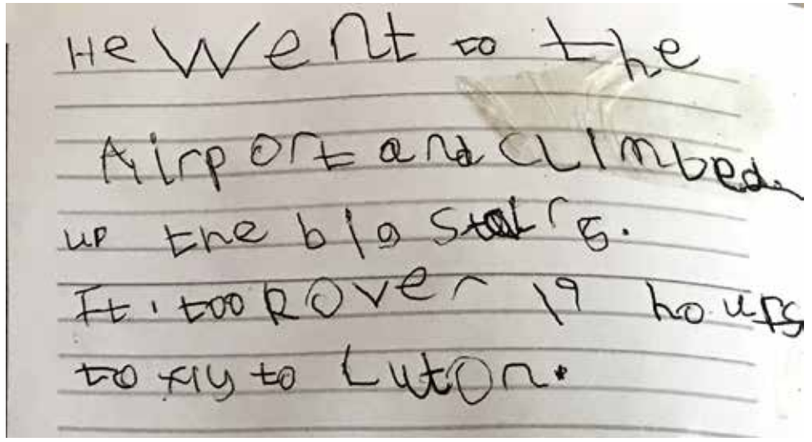
holiday

Once upon a time there lived a penguin in Antarctica. He got fed up with the snow and decided to go on holiday.

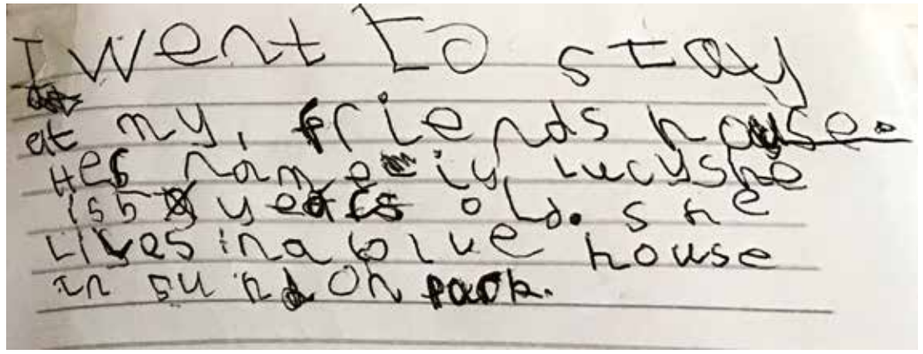




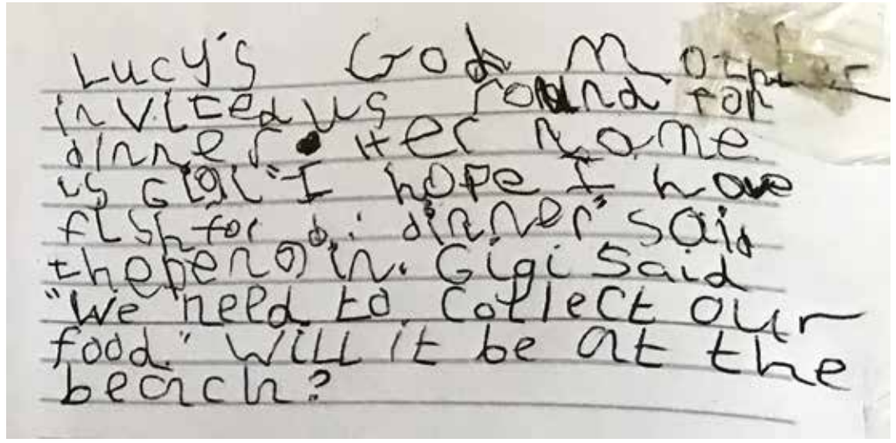
He went to the airport and climbed up the big stairs. It took over 19 hours to fly to Luton.



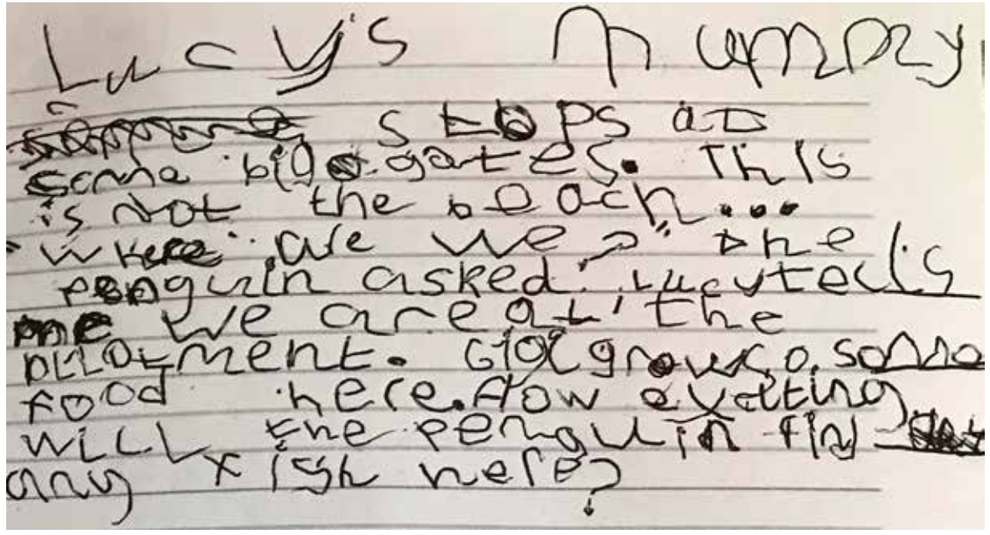
I went to stay at my friends house. Her name is Lucy, She is five years old. She lives in a blue house in sundon Park.



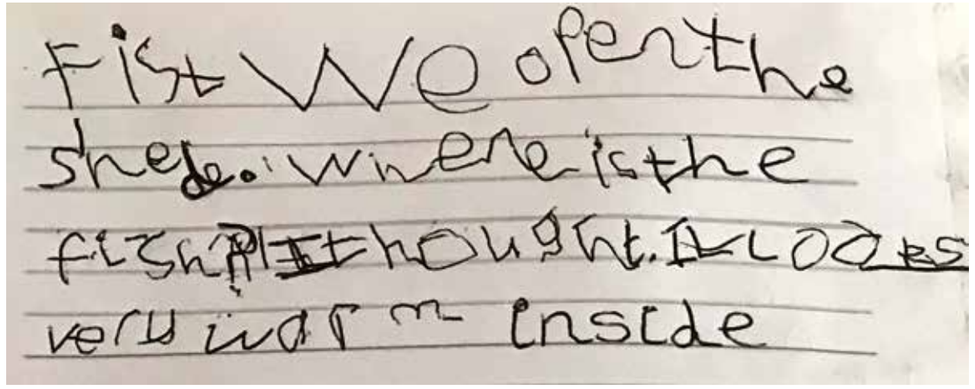
Lucy's godmother invited us round for dinner. Her name is Gigi.
"I hope I have fish for dinner" said the penguin. Gigi said "we need to collect our food." Will it be at the beach?



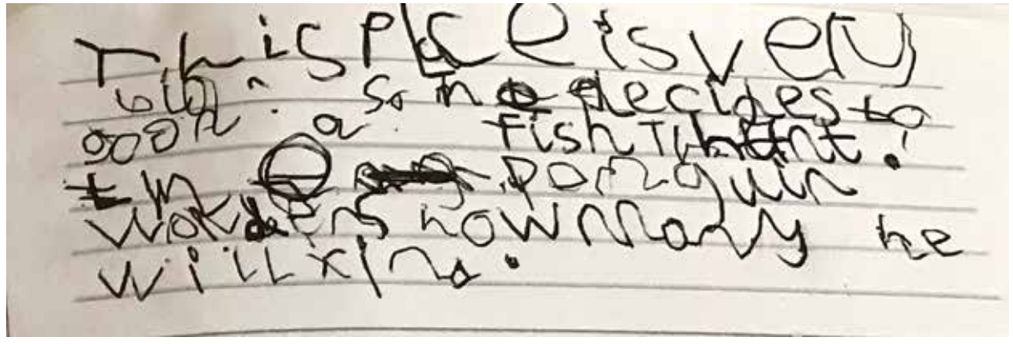
Lucy's Mummy stops at some big gates. This is not the beach, " where are we?" Hasta penguin. Lucy tells me we are at the allotments. Gigi grows some food here. "How exciting!", where are the penguins find any fish here?

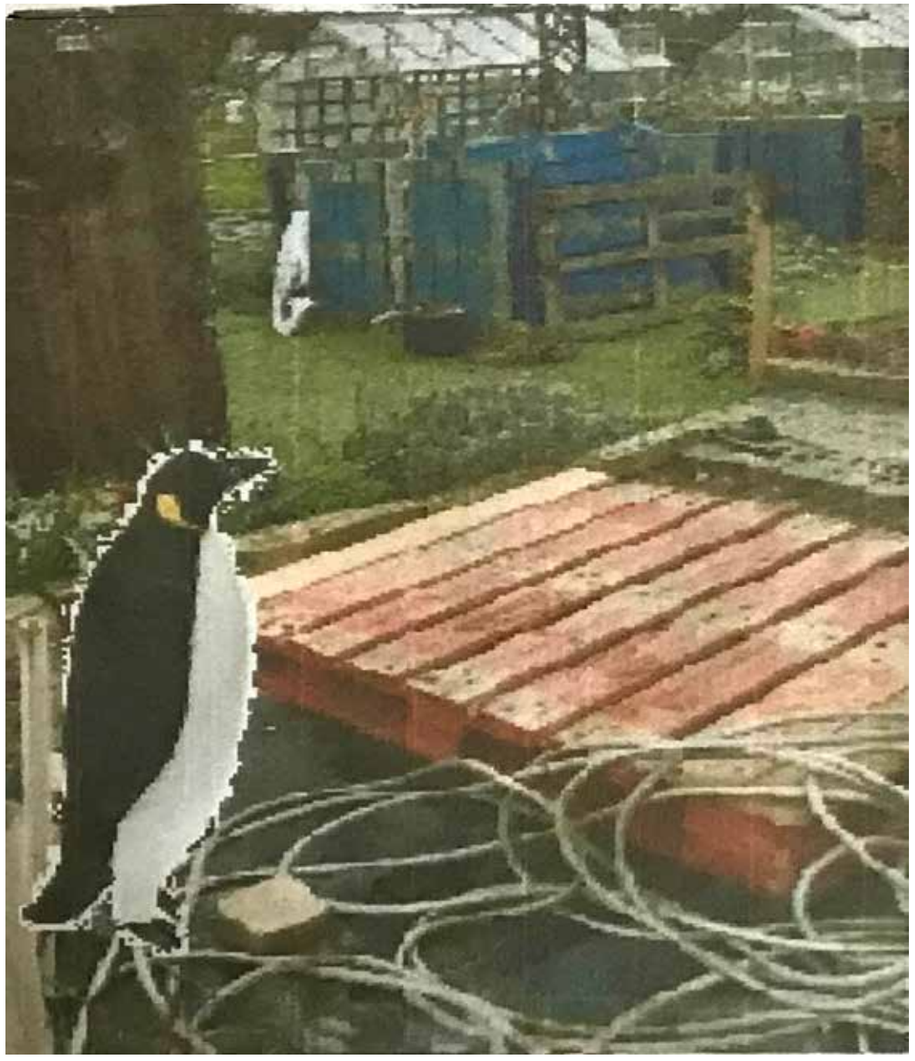


First we open the shed, where is the fish? he wondered. It looks very warm inside.

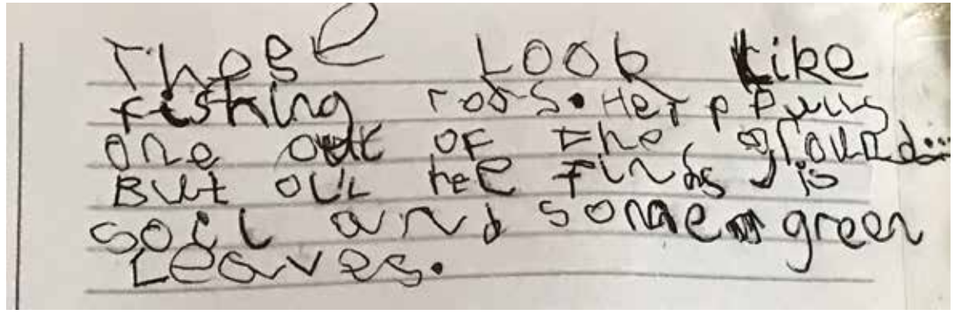


This place is very big so he decides to go on a fish hunt. The penguin wonders how many he will find.

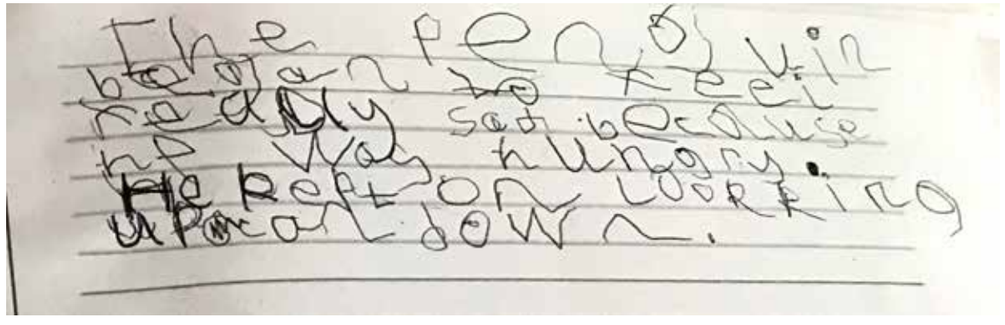




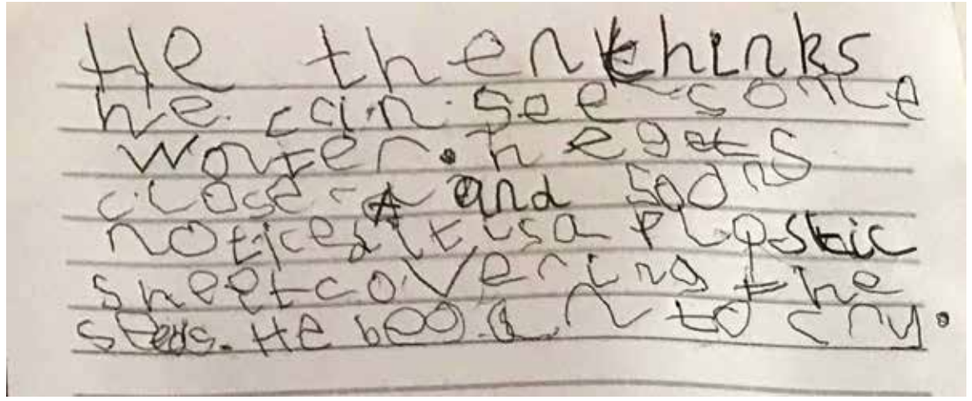
These look like fishing rods. He pulled one out of the grounds that all he finds is soil and some green leaves.

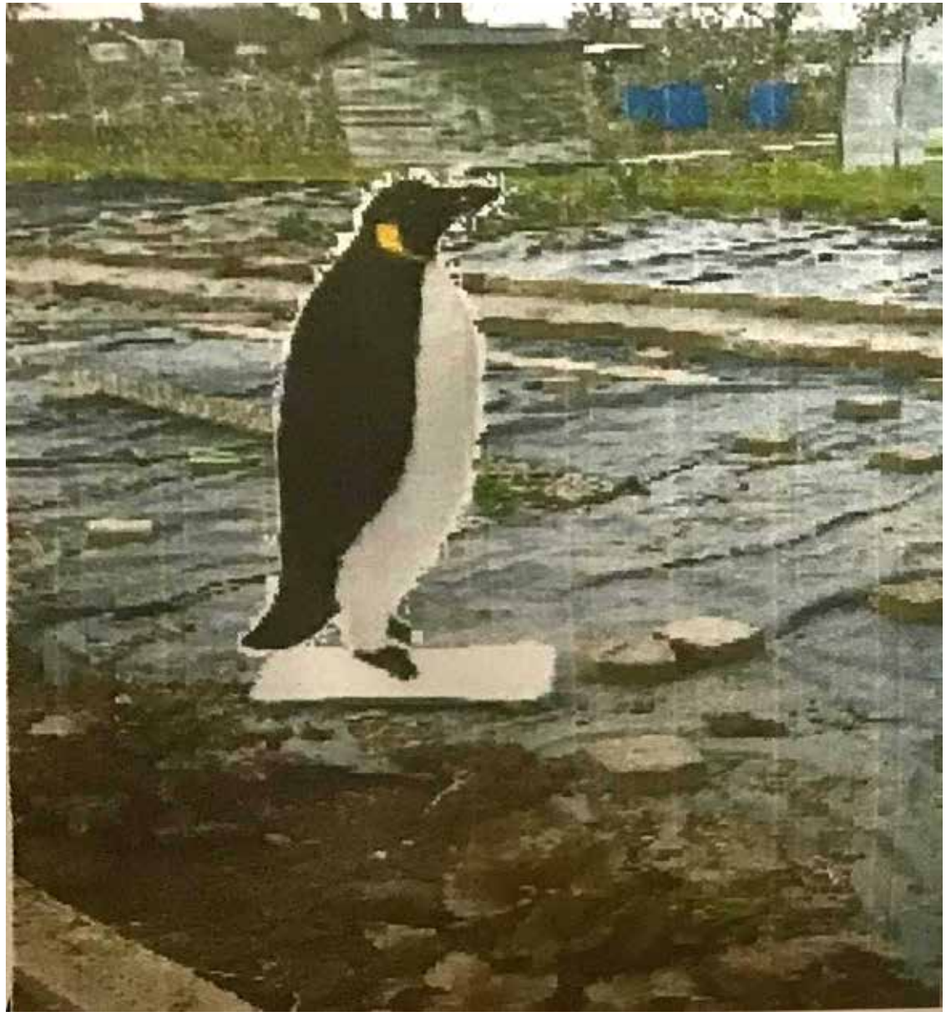


Penguin began to feel really sad because he was hungry. He kept on looking up and down.

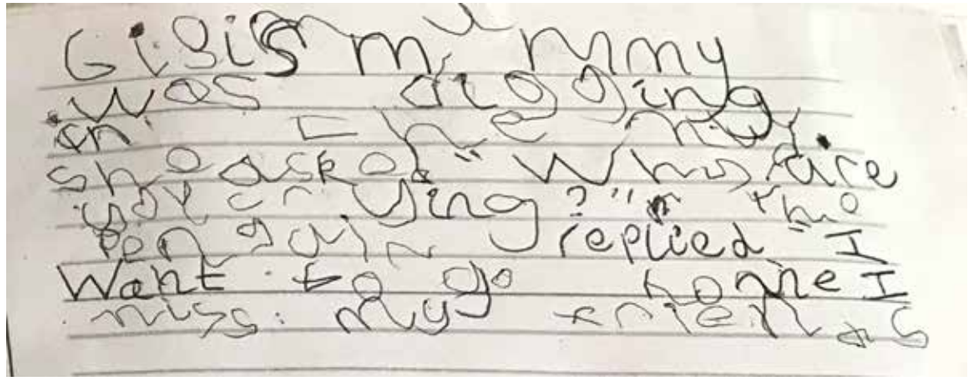


He then thinks he can see some water. He gets closer and say no to Sis, it is a plastic sheet covering this seeds seat, he begins to cry.

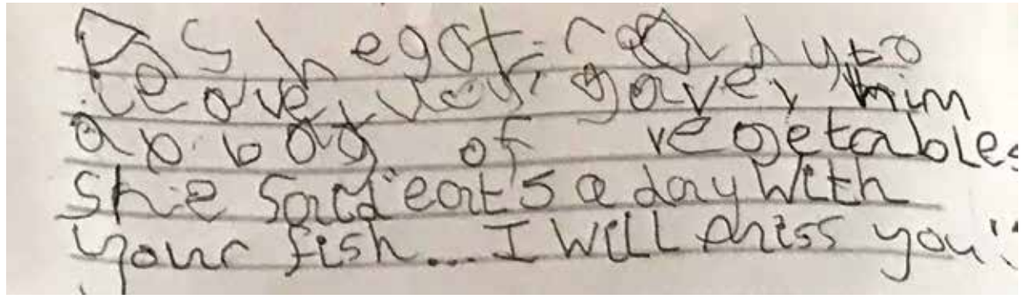




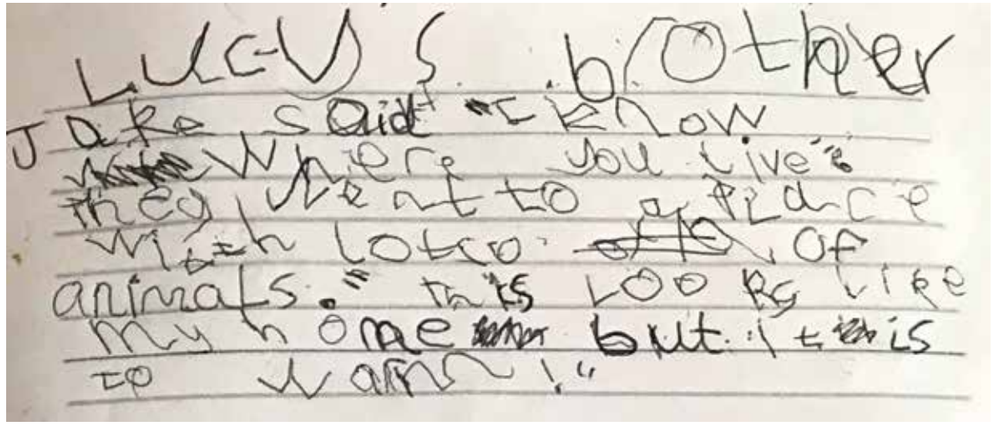
Gigi's mummy was digging in the mads she asked why are you crying? The penguin replied "I want to go home, I miss my friends."



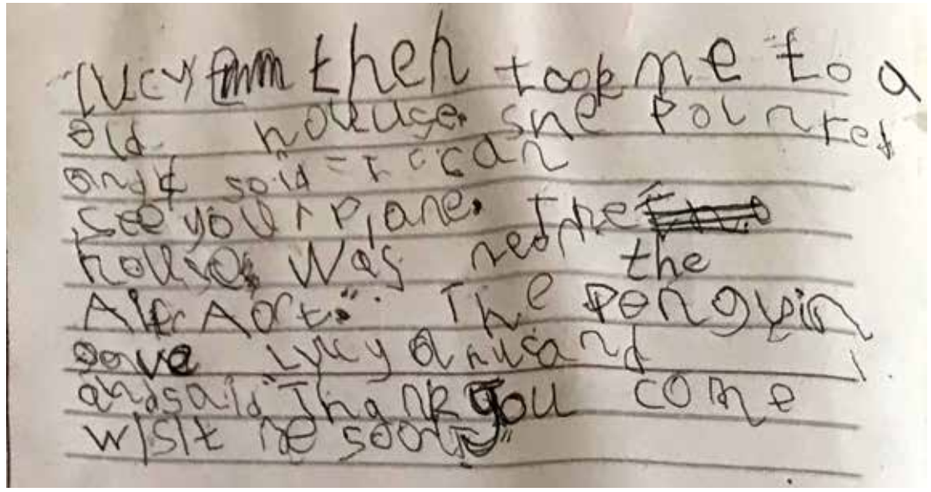
We got ready to leave. Lucy gave him a bag of vegetables. She said" eat fibre day with your fish.... I will miss you."



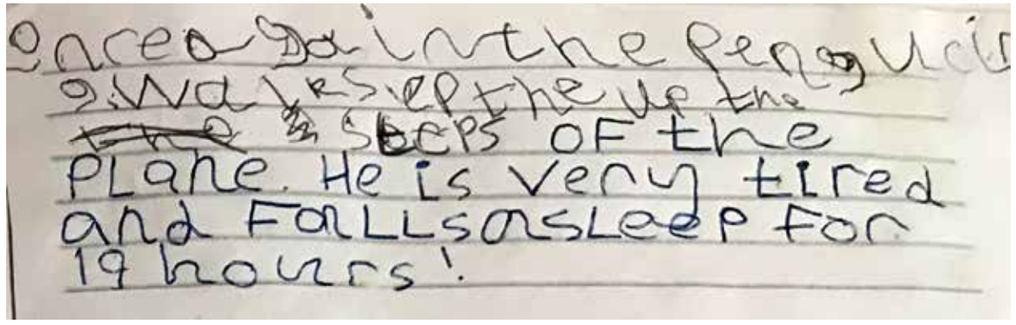
Lucy's brother Jake said "I know where you live." They went to a place with lots of animals. "This looks like my home but it's too warm."

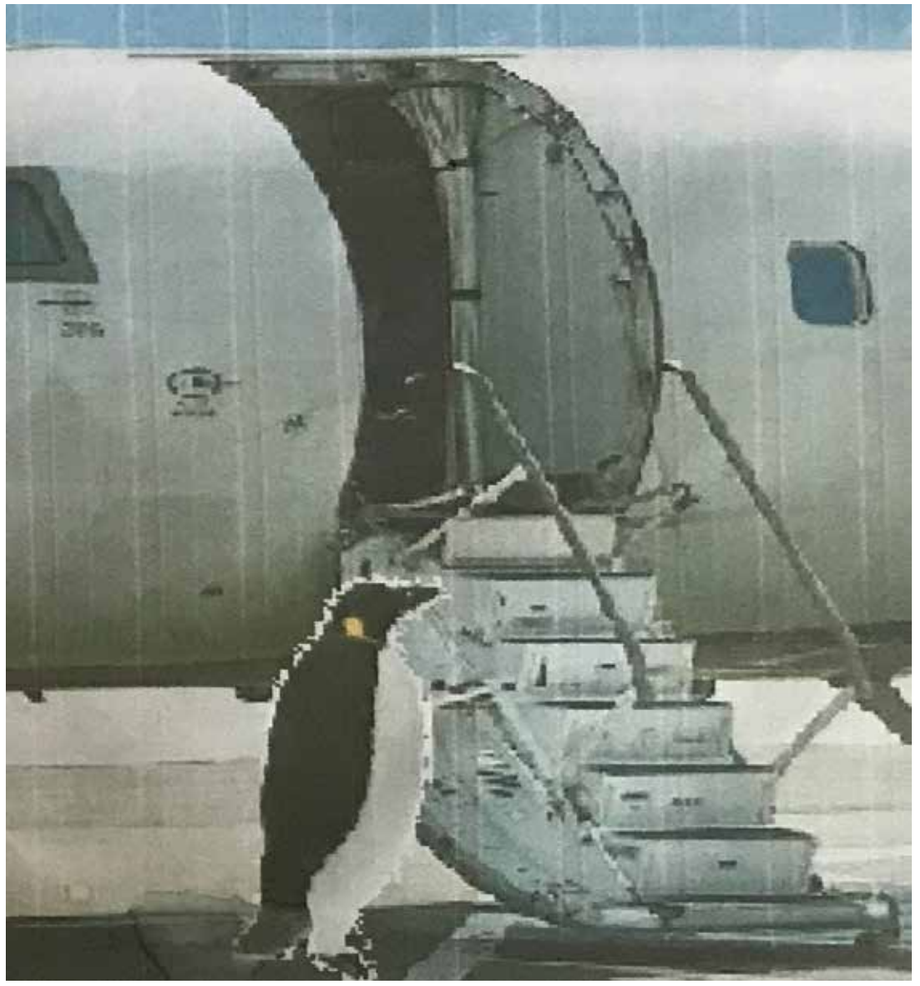


Lucy then took me to an old house. She pointed and said "I can see your plane." The house was near the airport, The penguin gave Lucy a hug and said "thank you come visit me soon."

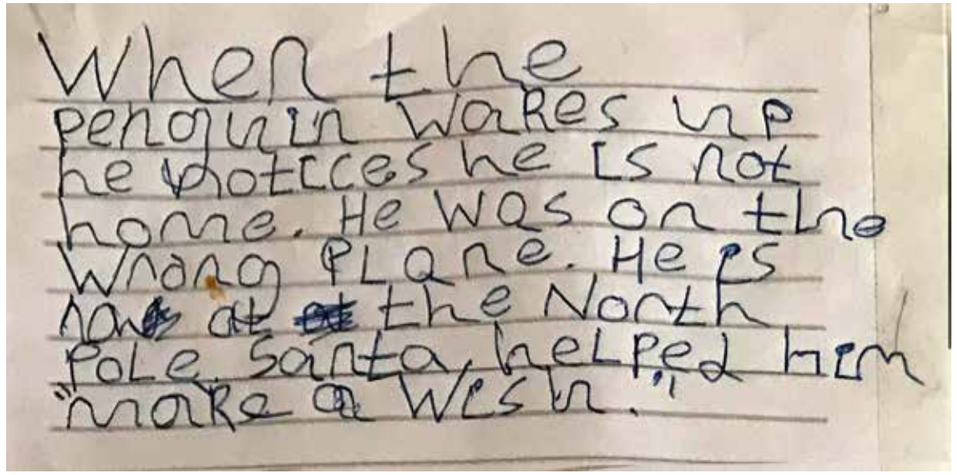


Once again the penguins walked up the steps of the plane. He is very tired and falls asleep for 19 hours.

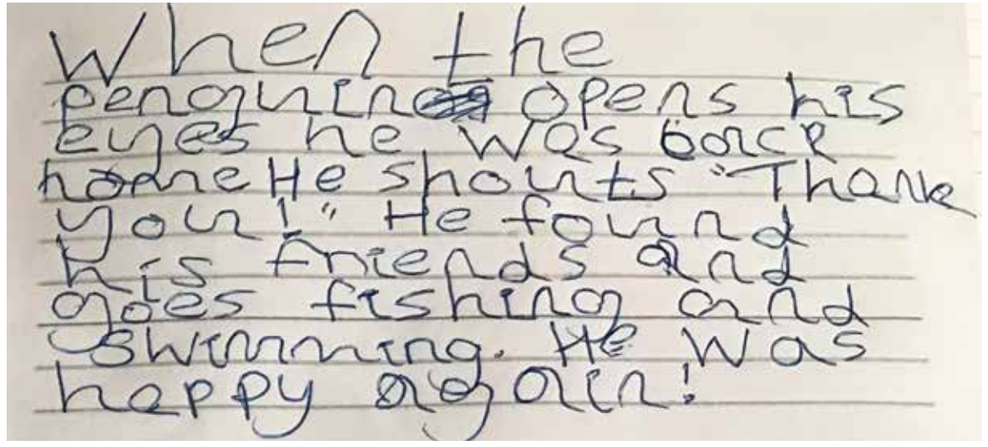


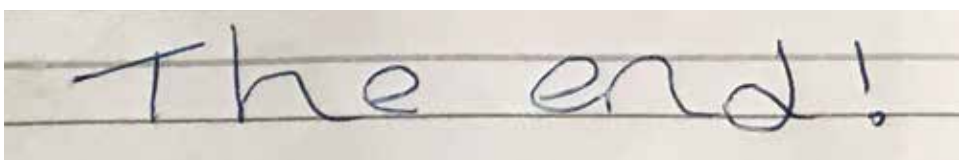


When the penguin wakes up, he notices he's not home. He was on the wrong plane. He is now at the North Pole. Santa help to make a wish.



When the penguin open his eyes, he was back home. He shouts "thankyou!" He found his friends and goes fishing and swimming. He was happy again.





The end.