Chapter 1: Losing the necklace

Anna was just getting her science book when she felt her neck and was sad. "Oh no!" cried Anna "I've lost my emerald necklace." She screamed, hoping someone would hear her but everyone ignored her. All except Sophie, who decided to help so she could have power as she saw Anna one day testing the necklace on their class pet, a hamster who was stuck on his wheel, and realised it had a superhero power. Sophie had seen a lot of movies.

A few months ago, Anna got sick and wasn't getting any better, so a genie appeared and gave Anna the necklace because she was kind-hearted and could save people. It would also keep her safe.

Anna thought it was weird that Sophie offered to help her because Sophie and Anna weren't the best of friends. A girl called Emily told someone, "That's weird Sophie and Anna don't even talk to each other," she whispered. A boy called Mike replied saying, "That's because Sophie poured milk on Anna back in Grade 2 and this year Sophie tore Anna's journal so it's a little weird that out of the blue she wants to help."

The necklace was from a genie and was only used for important reasons and the power always drained when it is used. If Anna could take care of it for one day, she could keep it. Meanwhile everyone was still talking about why Sophie would help Anna.

Chapter 2: ~ Wandering round school

Sophie thought about going to the Math class which was Anna's first class. They both decided to go there. Ms. Robinson, the math teacher, was there eating chocolate chip cookies. Anna and Sophie hid under her desk and when some crumbs fell on the floor, Sophie ate them because she was hungry. She started thinking of her mischievous plan and when Ms. Robinson left, Anna and Sophie scattered the room looking for Anna's emerald necklace. But it wasn't anywhere in the room.

"It isn't here let's check the history class," Anna whispered. They both went to the history class. Luckily Mrs. Williams, the history teacher, wasn't there so they looked everywhere in the class but couldn't find the necklace. Soon the principal, Mrs. Coleman, saw them and asked, "What are you doing in the history class? It's a mess in here. Did you two do this or just Sophie because Sophie is the troublesome one?"

"Well, we were just looking for something very important," said Anna.

"Making a mess like this, I am deeply disappointed. You both get detention!" the principal said furiously.

Detention was to be held every Saturday in their school and school was over so they could both head home. Soon Anna remembered that her father had the genie's bottle, so they both went to the science lab which was two blocks away from their school. Then Sophie said, "I know your emerald necklace has power. I saw you testing it on our class pet."

"Oh, I'm glad. At least someone knows. Just don't tell anyone because of its power," replied Anna.

"Okay," said Sophie seriously.

Chapter 3: Becoming best friends

Anna and Sophie both went to Anna's father's science lab.

"Oh father, where is the genie's bottle?" asked Anna.

"My dear, school's already finished. Oh wow, anyway, it is with Ron. He will show you," said Anna's father.

They both went to the cupboard place and saw Ron walking by looking for his glasses.

"Oh, hi Ron, can you please show us where the magic bottle is?" asked Sophie trying to be polite.

"Who are you and how do you know my name plus who allowed you in the office?" asked Ron. He seemed to be asking a lot of questions.

"I am Sophie. You see Anna here has lost her emerald necklace and I'm here to help so we will need the genie's bottle," said Sophie. And she did seem very suspicious but Anna didn't seem to care. She just needed the emerald necklace back in her hands so she could keep people safe and keep herself safe as well. Ron showed them where the genie's bottle was, then they summoned the genie.

"Oh, genie please help us. I've lost the emerald necklace and I'm very sorry," cried Anna. The genie pitied her and decided to tell her.

"It is in the principal's office but be careful no one has ever gotten past your principal," she said. Anna wasn't afraid because she had gotten past a lot of people and was ready for anything. When she got to the principal's office, she hid under a desk and saw Mrs. Williams, the history teacher, talking about the mess in her classroom.

"I just can't believe Anna was in part of all this rubbish, how can she make such a mess with Sophie!" Mrs Williams exclaimed. She was really mad. Anna could tell by the look on her face. Then Anna stopped focusing on the chat and saw the emerald necklace. Mrs. Williams focused on the necklace too.

"Mrs. Coleman what is that?" asked Mrs. Williams.

“Oh, that’s nothing. Let’s go to the teacher’s lounge,” said Mrs. Coleman pushing Mrs. Williams out of the office. After pushing Mrs. Williams, she closed the door so they could both go to the teacher’s lounge. Mrs. Coleman didn’t want anybody to know that she had stolen Anna’s necklace because the emerald was shiny, so she put it in the safe. As they left, Anna got out. She was trying to crack the code, then she remembered the principal always put her password as someone’s name from her family. Anna thought of her daughter’s name, Michelle, and put that in the code because she was very stealthy. No one heard her as she got the emerald necklace. Sophie was surprised. She always wanted a friend like that. Sophie apologised and told Anna the truth.

“I’m sorry, Anna. I wanted power but I realised power won’t give you everything,” she said. Anna forgave her and Sophie told her that she was secretly a musician named Aria. Anna was surprised because she was Aria’s biggest fan. Sophie gave Anna and her family some tickets. When Anna went to the concert, she enjoyed Sophie's singing. It was as sweet as an angel. From that day on Sophie and Anna were best friends.

Chapter 4: All ends well

After a day at the concert, Anna decided that she should start taking singing lessons. Sophie on the other hand, decided to start focusing on her studies and to start writing and reading books, but the mean and cruel principal became the janitor and a new principal came. Anna's mum she became principal because of her reputation, as she was very good at teaching and never stole. She was like Anna because when she was young, she always focused on her studies and passed all her tests and now as an adult she still studied. Now Anna didn't have to walk home she could just enter her mother's car, and everybody was now kind to Sophie and didn't even gossip about her. She had a study buddy called Emily. They studied together every Saturday. Anna and Sophie didn't have to go to detention since Mrs. Coleman was no longer the principal. The end
