

The Nightmare before Christmas

Sileanu Adesokan

The Nightmare before Christmas

Written & illustrated by

Sileanu Adesokan

Published by Saronti Ltd

Facilitated by Nikki Young at Storymakers

Chapter 1: A Normal Day

“Oh Billy, someone’s here to adopt you,” cried Ms. Bubbles, the manager of the orphanage. Billy was just waking up when he heard his name on this cold, crisp day.

“No thanks,” Billy replied.

“Ok,” said Ms. Bubbles in disappointment.

“Hi there, Billy, how are you”? asked Mr. Roger

“I am great. Ms. Bubbles is once again paying people to adopt me because she thinks I am annoying,” Billy replied.

“Well, you are one of the best kids I know,” said Mr. Roger.

Ms. Bubbles hated Billy. She always wished something would destroy him. Near the candy factory, was a cave. It was scary and no one in Beverly Hills dared to enter the cave because inside, lived the scariest person in all of Beverly Hills: Alisa.

Billy was going to the candy factory as usual, to see his old friend, Mr. Roger.

As usual, Alisa was hunting for food in the candy factory.

“Argh run, it’s Alisa!” screamed a child. All the children ran away except Billy, who was stuffing candy in his face.

“Oh, hi Alisa. Here for candy?” asked Mr. Roger.

“Of course,” replied Alisa. Then suddenly, big footsteps were heard from a far distance, and a monster appeared.

Chapter 2: Rebel Monster

The monster was white and furry, very large and had pointed horns and razor, sharp teeth. The monster was known for destroying Christmas.

“Run,” cried Mr. Roger. Everyone ran helter- skelter and the monster chased after them.

The monster picked up a car and threw it out of Beverly Hills. Then, it grabbed a building and also threw it right out of town; luckily, everyone in the building had run out and made it out safely. Alisa wasn't scared. She ran so fast; she was planning to hit the monster but the monster hit her really hard and she fell down. Billy picked her up.

"Why did you help me?" she asked.

"We are in massive danger, follow me, I know somewhere we could stay," said Billy. They ran as fast as they could to the orphanage but they were stopped when they entered by not such a surprising thing.

"Well if it isn't the boy who denied adoption. I want power and I'm going to get it without you blocking my path. Lock em up!" cried Ms. Bubbles.

Chapter 3: In the Cage

The security men grabbed Alisa and Billy and threw them into a cage.

They then threw the keys into the recycling bin.

“How do we get out?” asked Billy.

“I have an idea,” Alisa replied. Alisa grabbed a security man’s cloth, pulled him onto the bars of the cell and started punching him. The rest of the security crew gave Alisa an electric shock and pulled the security man back. Then, Billy had an idea to dress up as one of the security men.

“With what clothes silly?” asked Alisa,

“Oh,” replied Billy. They were both out of ideas, but then they heard a voice saying,

“Billy’s parents had a magic pendant that is very powerful, I need it, get it for me.” It was most likely to be Ms. Bubbles because that inside voice was so loud even the dogs in Australia could hear it. When Ms. Bubbles and her crew left, a spirit appeared. It said,

“Get the pendant. It is in the abandoned house.”

“Who are you?” asked Billy, but the spirit just poofed away. Now they had to find the pendant.

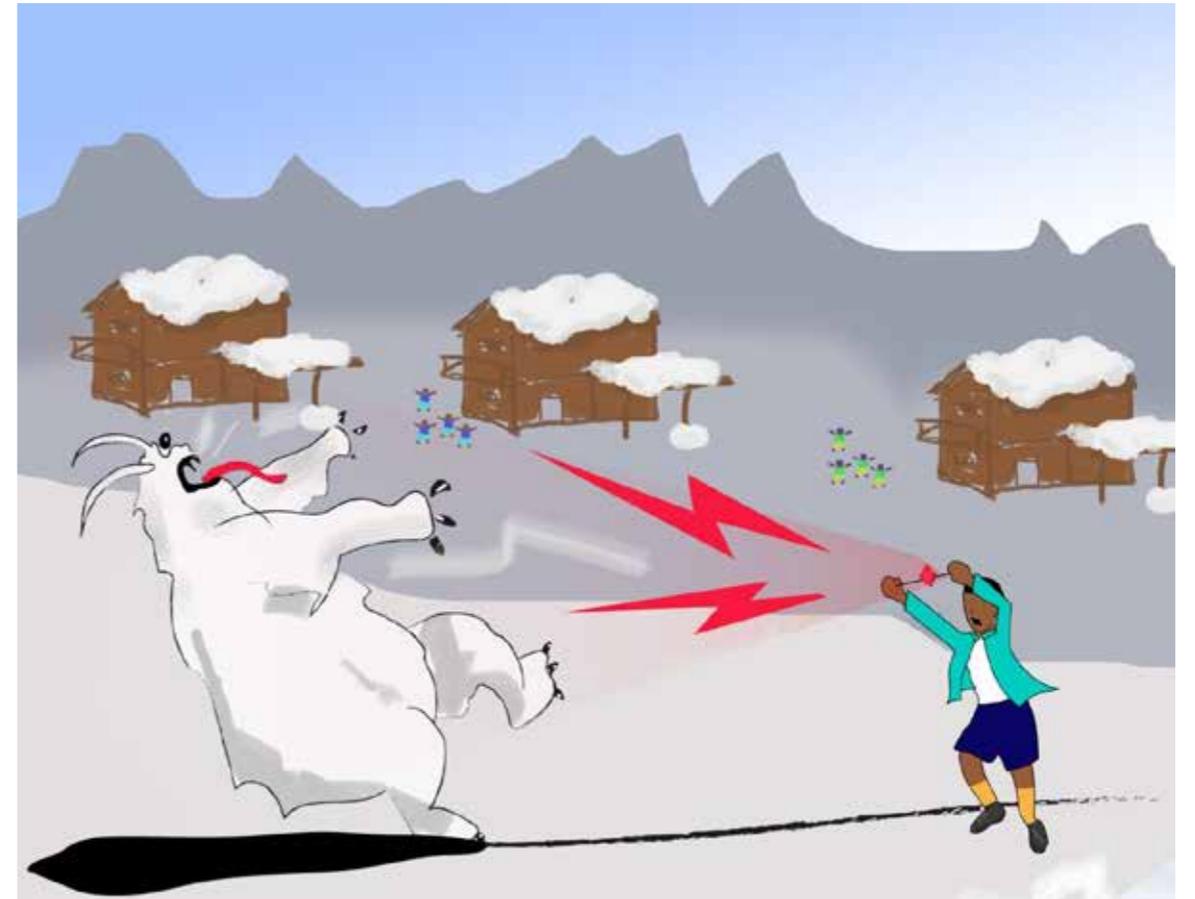

Chapter 4: Saving Christmas

Billy and Alisa went on to find the pendant in the abandoned house, with no sign of Ms. Bubbles and her crew. When they finally made it, they saw Ms. Bubbles holding the magic pendant.

“Hey, that’s my parent’s magic pendant,” cried Billy. “Not anymore,” cackled Ms. Bubbles. Then, the spirit came back and used his most sacred power to destroy Ms. Bubbles and all the security men. “Who are you?” asked Alisa. The spirit changed into his normal form.

“I am your parents’ dog. My name is Mordecai,” replied the spirit or Mordecai. “Now get the pendant and save the day!”

They ran to the centre of Beverly Hills and used the magic pendant to destroy the monster and they saved everyone.

The next day was Christmas and Billy was staying with Alisa since the mayor of the city decided that they should destroy the orphanage.

“Merry Christmas Billy!” smiled Alisa.

“Thank you, Merry Christmas to all!”

Chapter 5: Unexpected Ending

“Goanna is down chief,” a man said.

“Well, we’d better turn another person evil,” the chief replied. The place was dark and gloomy; there were thousands of bats sleeping in the dark place and surprisingly, it was a cave where there was a chief called Doom. Ms. Bubbles or should I say, Goanna, worked for them but was destroyed so there was only one thing left to do.

“Get the young boy called Billy’s parents. We’ll turn them evil.”

“Sir, they are not there,” replied the man. Billy’s parents had gone and no one had a clue where they were.

“Find them and don’t let anything get in your way, or else... you’re all going to be fed to my dragon because he is famished,” Doom said with a serious look on his face. The men searched everywhere but they couldn’t find them and sadly they were fed to the chief’s dragon.

“I guess sometimes you win, sometimes you lose and I’m not getting anything ready because I’ll have to admit I’m too lazy.” The chief decided to give up and never work again while his dragon lived on its own.

The End

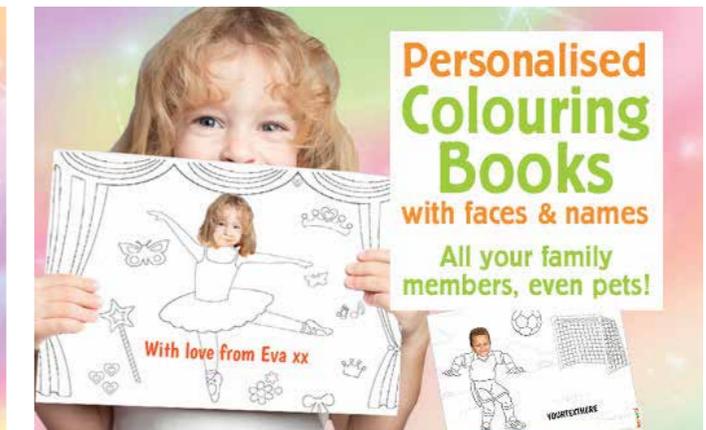

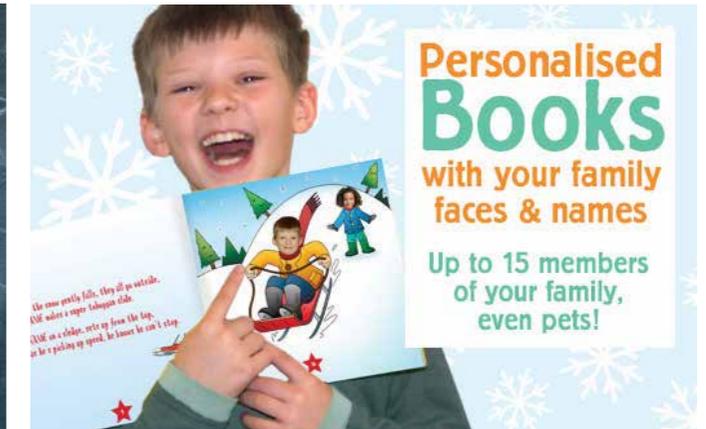

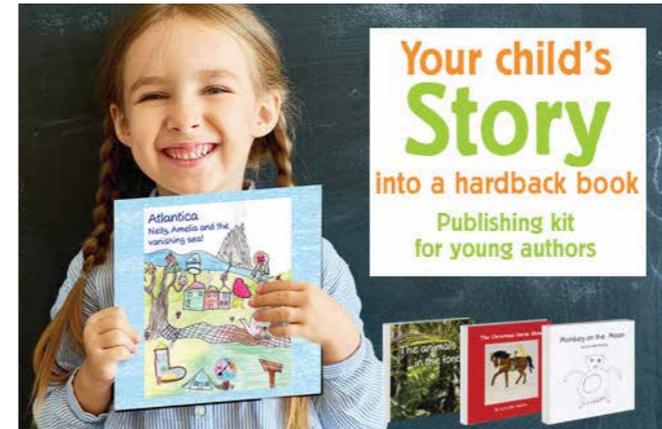

We hope that you, your family and friends enjoy the book you have created. This project was co-ordinated and facilitated by author Nikki Young for members of her Storymakers writing club.

Find out more at: www.storymakersclub.com and register for your next exciting course.

The Storymakers Writing Club provides English and writing support to children aged 7+ in the form of weekly groups, 1:1 sessions and holiday workshops.

Publish your book at www.saronti.com/storymakers

We make reading fun and writing fun. We embrace creativity. it's fun. It's unique. It's Saronti!

Need another copy of this book?
Go to www.saronti.com/Storymakers
Your book reference is Sar2646a

www.saronti.com

Billy and Alisa's day starts like every normal day, until a very unexpected thing happens that might ruin Christmas forever. Will they be able to stop this horrible thing? Will they find out who caused this terrible disaster?