Chapter 1

In a faraway land, deep in the void of space a baby alien named Kyl had been stolen from his family. Kyl was not an ordinary baby alien, he has every power imaginable. Normal baby aliens only have one power.

One day, a group of shapeshifting villains found out about Kyl and had some evil plans for him. The villains kidnapped him and travelled to earth so they could hide him.

Over ten years later Kyl was raised as a normal human. Kyl was really smart, athletic and strong. He was so smart that he went from first class to sixth class immediately.

One day, Kyl came home early from school to surprise his family. He peaked into the kitchen, only to see his parents transforming. Then, he sneaked upstairs to pack his belongings to run away.

Chapter 2

After Kyl ran away, his phone started to beep. He answered, "Hello?"

"We are your real parents, Kyl"

Kyl's real parents told him that he was an alien with every power imaginable. After hearing that, he decided to go on a journey to defeat every villain in the universe.

Two years later, Kyl met another alien named Michael at a cliff on the edge of the world. Kyl and Michael became best friends. One day, they were building a spaceship to travel back to their home planet. Suddenly, they found out that Kyl's fake parents were destroying everything in their path so that they could find him.

Kyl and Michael travelled to the highest point of America to stop them. On the way, they met another alien named Ava.

Michael and Ava had opposite powers; Michael had the power of lava while Ava had the power of ice. They did not get along very well.

Chapter 3

The journey was long as they did not have any vehicles and Kyl had not yet mastered his powers. One night, the three aliens built a nice hut so that they could sleep. Kyl and Ava collected firewood, and Michael controlled his lava's temperature to start the fire.

By the time Kyl and Ava returned to the hut, Michael had mastered the temperature of his lava.

Finally, they started a fire and ate a wild boar they had hunted earlier that day.

Chapter 4

After they all ate, they went to sleep. In the morning, Kyl was the first to wake. He wanted to train, so he completed challenges that put his speed, strength and athletic abilities to the test.

When Michael and Ava opened their eyes, Kyl was already back to sleep as he was exhausted. When Kyl finally had enough rest, they ran as fast as they could so they could get to the top of America.

The three aliens took a small break after three hours. Michael announced that he would be Kyl's lava teacher, so they started to train. After his training, Ava ran towards Kyl and screeched, "I will be your ice teacher!"

To begin his training, Ava checked if Kyl could create ice from his hands. At the same time, Michael decided to go hiking. He stumbled across a village that was destroyed.

"Kyl, Ava!" he screamed, "Come here!"

Chapter 5

When Ava and Kyl arrived at the village, they saw that a lot of people were hurt and houses were destroyed.

When Kyl saw how many people had got hurt, he ran to help them. "The volcano is about to erupt!" shouted Solomon.

Kyl turned around and saw lava. "Stop the volcano, Michael!" pleaded Kyl.

Ava jumped in to help the village by freezing as much of the land as she could. Then Kyl ran to help Michael, but he was so exhausted from helping that he fainted.

Kyl had rolled down the mountain. As it was a solar eclipse, Michael could not use his lava anymore. Ava found herself surrounded by shapeshifters, and then they surrounded Michael and Kyl.

Everybody was trapped. They had no way out. Suddenly smoke appeared everywhere. They could not see anything. And Kyl was still unconscious.
