I would like to thank my mom and dad, Ruchi Pathak Kaul and Ashish Kaul for inspiring me and giving me new ideas, and Daisy Meadows who wrote “Storm the Lightning Fairy” which inspired my imagination. I would also like to thank Clare who has shown me that writing a book is really fun when you have the right structure and support.

Chapter 1

Emma and Rachel were enjoying a delicious chocolate ice-cream on a sunny day at the plaza in Weatherbury, when they suddenly noticed a gleaming light.

It looked like the gleaming light was hiding a secret.

Dropping their ice-cream they followed the light which led them to some fairy dust.

Fairy dust is a trail which fairies leave behind!

This meant there were fairies nearby!

Following the fairy dust they soon reached a huge spooky castle. The name mentioned was Jack-O-Land.

Chapter 2

“Jack-O-Land...”, Rachel exclaimed “A castle.....this huge ??”

“This looks really spooky,” whispered Emma.

As they sneakily tiptoed into the castle they could hear someone crying and asking for help.

“Look there,” said Rachel
“A tiny fairy, looks like she is trapped.”

“Let’s help her”,
whispered Emma and they both crawled to her!

Chapter 3

While approaching the trapped fairy in the castle the girls heard a strange voice.

They suddenly saw an ugly looking troll with a pointed and weird nose. His ears were long while his teeth were ghastly.

He had a staff with a glowing globe on the top.

me your powers. I'll give you a few hours to think !”

“Looks like he has some magical powers”, whispered Rachel.

“Jack, You’re cruel....I won’t give up my powers to you!” shouted the fairy to him.

Emma mumbled to Rachel “I thought fairies weren’t real.”

Jack smirked, “HaHaHa... Now you are in my trap and I will destroy your Fairyland if you don't give

Chapter 4

As Jack left the place, Emma and Rachel gently crawled to the fairy.

They asked her how she got trapped and how they could help her to get free.

The fairy was filled with joy to see that she had both the girls to help her.

She started to sob and told her story.

“I am Blissa, a Comfort Fairy. Jack is a cruel goblin, who has the power to shape shift and teleport”, she said.

“He teleported to our Fairyland and disguised himself as a fairy asking for some help. When I followed him to this castle, he trapped me in this magical cage”, explained Blissa.

“But why would he do that?” asked Emma.

“He wants to destroy our beautiful home and take our powers away to use them for bad things” , said Blissa.

Chapter 5

“Is there any way to help you escape ?” asked Rachel.

Blissa revealed “All Jack’s powers are in the globe of his tall staff. If you can somehow take that globe and give it to me, I can destroy it and change Jack into a fairy.

Blissa continued -

“Years ago, Jack was cursed. Since then he has been using his powers for bad. By destroying the globe I can remove his curse and he can be turned back as a good fairy of Fairyland.”

The girls realised they must rescue Blissa and help her free Jack from his curse.

Rachel , Emma and Blissa planned the escape together.

Before Jack entered the castle, Blissa had turned Rachel into a small fairy who looked exactly like her.

Now the plan was in action.

Chapter 6

“How come I have two trapped fairies who look the same. Which one of you is BLISSA...? Tell me or I’ll kill both of you!” shouted Jack.

While Jack was confused , Emma jumped into action.

She sneaked past Jack to steal the globe from the staff and hid behind the original Blissa as planned.

From her cage, Blissa swiped her wand to cast a spell which destroyed the globe and Jack yelled and howled for help!

Chapter 7

As Jack was burning he transformed into a fairy. He was now free from the curse.

This was the birth of new Jack, the Protector Fairy.

“Thank you Blissa,” said Jack as his curse was broken. He then cast a good spell to free Blissa.

Blissa and Jack then thanked the girls for saving them and Fairyland.

Chapter 8

“I couldn’t have done it without you , Rachel and Emma”, said Blissa.

Rachel asked “Hey Blissa, what powers do you have?”.

Blissa replied “I am a Comfort Fairy. I can create illusions to comfort people!”

“That is cool,” Emma exclaimed.

They finally arrived at Emma’s house , and all of them had hot chocolate and marshmallows.

“That was a long day!” said Rachel.

Now it was time to part with both Jack and Blissa.

They wished each other good luck and promised to meet again when in need.

Jack finally realised that the root of all evil is abuse of power.

As the fairies left, Emma and Rachel thought of having another soothing sundae to celebrate...

Until their next adventure...
