

Raveen's Rescue Mission

Written and Illustrated by

Shraddha Renjith

Published by Saronti Ltd

Facilitated by Clare Ford at SwitchedON!

The global online writing academy

Raveen's Rescue Mission

Written & Illustrated by

Shraddha Renjith

Chapter 1

The Birth of the Dragon Prince

200 years ago, on a mountain called Dragon Mountain, a little egg hatched a baby dragon, while close by in a small meadow, a little baby girl was born.

Dragon Mountain was home to the King and Queen Dragon, who were delighted by the birth of baby Noris.

All the other dragons lived close by in Dragon Valley and they were looking forward to celebrating the birth of the new Dragon Prince.

The dragons were very special creatures indeed.

Each dragon had a different element which was represented by the colour of the dragon itself. The Ice Dragon was a beautiful, glimmering white; the Fire Dragon had amazing amber scales and the Earth Dragon was a rich, deep brown.

The Dragon King and Queen were very excited to see what their new baby's powers were. Suddenly, gold sparks of light came from baby Noris' mouth. The King and Queen were delighted: a special power for a special baby. Noris was a deep, sky-blue dragon.

Meanwhile, down in the lush, green meadow a little baby girl had been abandoned by her grandmother, due to the soldiers who were fighting in her nearby village, pillaging cottages and setting them alight. Her family had decided that this would be the safest place for the small baby even though it was such a difficult decision.

Chapter 2

The Birthday Gift

The Earth, Air and Ice Dragons went down into the meadow to collect flowers for the celebration. One of the elder dragons, the Air Dragon, spotted the little baby hidden in a basket behind the trees.

"Let's bring her to the King and Queen," suggested the Ice Dragon."

"Good idea!" exclaimed the Earth Dragon.

When the dragons brought the baby girl back to the King and Queen on Dragon Mountain, they decided that she should be made comfortable in one of the spare rooms. The Queen Dragon named her Raveen and raised her as her own with baby Noris. The two grew up as brother and sister, and became the best of friends.

Chapter 3

A Surprise Birthday Card

Twenty six years passed happily, with Raveen and Noris growing, learning and playing together.

Until one fateful day, when Raveen had a special letter...

She was excited, thinking that it would be something for her birthday, but she got a big shock. The letter was a flame letter from Endor Flame, the Evil Dragon, who lived in Volcano Mountain, saying that he had kidnapped her best friend, Noris.

Endor Flame was actually the Dragon Queen's sister.

She was banished from Dragon Mountain to Volcano Mountain because she tried to steal the Dragon Queen's crown. Endor Flame went on to rule Volcano Mountain and became evil and twisted, consumed with a burning hatred for her sister. Before she was banished, she vowed to her sister that she would never break her trust, so when the Dragon King banished her, the Dragon Queen was deeply upset.

saronti

Raveen and Noris are best friends who are looking forward to celebrating their birthdays together. However, things do not go according to plan. Noris goes missing and it is up to Raveen to find him.

Will they ever re-unite?