

Sofia Rose Facchini

The Halloween Killer Vampire

Written & illustrated by

Sofia Rose Facchini

Published by Saronti Ltd

This book is dedicated to my cousins

Aria, Isaac and Luci

Chapter 1

Mysteriously Katie Killer, the vampire came to the top of the cliff.

How far had she walked?

Nobody knows.

Where did she come from?

Nobody knows.

How was she formed?

Nobody knows.

As scary as your worst nightmare the vampire stood at the top of the cliff, on the brink, in the beautiful twilight. Swiftly the cold wind sang through her pale bony fingers. Her razor sharp fangs, as sharp as knives and as white as fresh snow, slowly came out her mouth and slowly turned left and right. Her eyes like red rubies, glowed red, white then infra-red. Her big pitch black, cloudy, cape flowed in the strong wind.

She could hear the hissing and crackling of a fire. Never before had Killer Katie seen fire. This was the fire that burned all the time to protect the villagers from danger.

Katie Killer swayed in the horrendous thunderstorm. The strong wind pressed against her back. She swayed forward to the tip of the monstrous cliff. Her left foot, pointy left foot, lifted up, up, up into the air and Katie stepped off the cliff into nothingness.

Boooooom!

Craaaaaash!

Down the cliff Katie Killer tumbled, toppling wing over heels.

Craaaaash!

Craaaaaaash!

Craaaaaaaaaaash!

Her cape fell off. Her fangs got chipped.

She dropped her bucket. The special bucket that she held onto every day...

Chapter 2

Just before dawn two owls flew happily over the tree tops and landed on a patch of mud. They had two chicks in a nest in one of the oldest trees. Now they were searching for food. One of the owls flew up – EEEEEK! It had seen something frightening. He glided over to the babies in the tree. He flew down and landed and picked something up, something black, square and flimsy. It was part of Katie Killer's vampire cape. He brought it back to his mate. They both looked at this strange thing. At first they thought it was a strange looking piece of fern. Then the other owl flew down closer and he found something else. He thought it was a type of mushroom. It was a strong orange colour but was very, very strange. They thought they had found a strange piece of fern and a mushroom. Soon they realised neither was edible. They did not know that they had found a vampire's cape and her magic bucket.

While all this was happening Katie Killer was beginning to stir and wake up.

Chapter 3

That same evening a villager was exploring the outer part of the village. Surprisingly she had a weird feeling. She felt as if she was being watched. Behind the bottle green trees she saw two red lights almost like fireballs.

'That's odd' she thought.

Just then she saw a creepy, pale figure emerge from the shadows.

‘The Halloween Vampire, she is back!’ she said to herself.

As fast as lightening, she ran back home to tell her dad. Instantly her dad believed her, there was no explanation needed. Her dad dashed into his car and drove off into the night. He put on speed and held on tight to his car. He looked everywhere. He couldn’t find the Halloween Vampire no matter how hard he tried.

Chapter 4

The next morning the villagers were shouting because the fire had been put out.

How did it happen?

Nobody knows.

There was one clue left behind – sweets. Why sweets?

The furious villagers were shouting.

‘Where is our fire?’

‘Where is it?’

What has happened to it?’

It can only mean Halloween Vampire is back. We must get rid of her at once.

But how?

Chapter 5

They hatched a plan to dig an enormous hole, three trees tall and three trees wide. By the end of the day the hole was ready.

The villager who first saw the Halloween Vampire would be the person to capture her once and for all so that she would never ever roam again and threaten the village. The villager hatched a plan to lure the Halloween Vampire into the hole using sweets.

But was this plan successful?

Nobody knows.

Do you like to write stories?

Ever fancied publishing one of them?

It's easy with Saronti.

Get in touch to find out more about our publishing packages for young authors.

www.saronti.com

Katie the Halloween Killer Vampire returns to terrorise the village. Theatre villagers devise a plan to rid themselves of her once and for all.

Is the plan good enough?