Chapter 1

Sam Goes on An Adventure

One sunny summer day, Sam was excited to go on a boating trip with his family. He wasn't going on any old boat, he was going on a fishing boat! Sam had never been on a boat before, and he was extremely nervous. When Sam was sitting in the car on the way to the lake with boats he started to cry sadly. "What if I sink in my boat and drown?" he wept. It was the most frightening thing for Sam in his whole entire life.

Finally, Sam arrived at the place where the boats were parked. He gasped in surprise. “It’s not going to be so scary after all,” Sam whispered to himself, “It actually looks like it will be extremely fun going on the fishing boat.”

His family had already been sailing for half an hour and they had travelled for over two miles, without even seeing a single fish.

“It’s going to be a long day,” sighed Sam’s Dad.

Chapter 2

Waiting

Sam and his family were struggling to find even one fish! Five minutes passed. Still no fish. After another half an hour, no fish were caught! It seemed like fish didn’t even live in the lake! They had tried everything: different rods, different length lines, different hooks. But not a single bite.

Chapter 3

The Big Catch!

Just when Sam was about to give up, he felt something heavy in his fishing net. “Mum! Dad! I think I’ve caught something!” he exclaimed.

Everybody ran over, shrieking with delight and excitement.

“Sam, I knew you’d do it!” praised Sam’s Mum.

“Dad, help me! It’s so heavy - I can’t reel it in!”

“OK son, let’s pull it together.”

It was a very heavy fish indeed.

They heaved and pulled and pulled and heaved and eventually they saw a fin. It was multi-coloured like a rainbow, soon followed by an enormous black fish head, with green googly eyes, that reminded Sam of the evil goblin in Spiderman.

“Wow! This isn’t any ordinary fish!!! Oh my goodness - what have I caught???”

With a thud, the fish landed in the boat and it shook dangerously. The captain turned the boat around quickly and headed back to the safety of the harbour, while the crew tried to contain the fish in a small basin of water.

Chapter 4

The Evil Fish

Eventually, Sam and his family managed to return home with difficulty, strapping the fish securely in a container on the car roof! They took the fish into the garden and left it there while they looked for some food for their enormous fish.

To Sam's horror, when he returned to the garden to give the fish some food, he saw that it had grown into a giant fish and was no longer in the container.

“How can it be alive without water?” wondered Sam. “It must be a very unusual fish indeed.”

Sam shrunk back behind the shed and hid to see what the fish would do next.

It flew around the garden and knocked down the goalposts at the back of the garden, where Sam and his brother practised football - and then the fish ate the goalposts! But it was still hungry! Next on the menu was the shed that Sam was hiding behind. The fish started fly-swimming towards the shed, so Sam hid behind huge plants.

But the greedy fish was not finished. It also ate the container full of water in which it swam before growing into a scary giant.

Sam chose that moment to run back inside the house, panicking, as he realised that the fish was evil and he had to warn his family.

Chapter 5

Chaos

The evil fish followed Sam inside, looking around with its googly green eyes, until it found the next tasty morsel... Sam's favourite book. Gulp! It was devoured in one bite.

Sam was engulfed with fear. He had to get his family out of the house quickly and fight the fish to the death.

Chapter 6

Battle

Sam looked around for a weapon... he grabbed his brother's toy sword and the dartboard to use as a shield.

He hid behind the sofa while the evil fish finished chewing the last few pages of the next book on its menu and tried to come up with a plan.

Then he charged!

“Aaarrrrggghhhh!” he screamed like a warrior.

The fish was distracted and beat its multi-coloured fin in anger, letting out a deafening scream.

It struck Sam hard with its tail, sending him spinning across the room.

Sam got up and charged again.

This time, he had more luck. Brave Sam kept fighting fearlessly against the horrible fish for many hours.

Finally, he stuffed the sword into the evil fish and squashed it with his dartboard.

Chapter 7

The Fish Gets Cooked

Sam had defeated the evil fish! Finally, he could call his family in. Sam called, “Come in! The Evil fish is stabbed to death!”

That night Sam and his family cooked the monstrous fish and had a feast. Sam was given the biggest portion of all, because he was the one who made it possible for the family to enjoy having the feast and the whole family absolutely loved devouring the mouth - watering, white fish.

The news of the delicious food spread across the whole city and everyone in the town wanted to try the extraordinary fish that Sam caught and his mum cooked at home. Sam's family set up a huge table in their garden and invited many friends to enjoy the fish together.

After that day, Sam and his family became very famous.
