Do you know where Dragons Live?

They live in a big forest in a faraway land.

It is called Dragons Land!

They chose that land because it is so far away
and it is gloomy in there, that is why they love it so much.

They play amongst the reeds and lily pads.

It's because they like playing Hide and Seek.

They are not that good at that game.

It's a fantastic place, it is! People who've been there love it.

They think it was the right place.

They sleep in BIG BIG BIG piles of Silky Wet Moss.

The piles are so ENORMOUS because they are so BIG!

They have been alive for EVER and EVER.

I can't keep track of how many years they've been alive.

When I was high up in the sky on my Dragon, I saw tiny little Villages.

Far Far away in the distance.

The Villages were surrounded by trees what look like they go on forever and rocks in between the trees are like humans.

I feel a strong gust of wind flowing straight through my body like a knife thrown at my cheek, it hurts so much.

I hear the seagulls squawking like a elephant marching and strongly.

It feels like I am going to fall.

I have shivers all over me.

What a fun thing to be on.

I can see the BIG DEEP Ocean what looks like it goes on forever.

The waves SPLASH! onto the shore, the sound is like

LIGHTNING!

SHOOTING!

and sounds amazing.

I see a little school and if the Dragon swoops lower, I see lots of girls and boys running around
With some on obstacles, DARK BLACK as night!
Bark patterned into wide lines what look like silk ribbons, they are everywhere!

I love that they are still alive?
I'm sure they are still real!
