
Fun
Disaster
Author
Audrey Koo-Green

Fun Disaster

Written & illustrated by

Audrey Koo-Green

Published by Saronti Ltd

Facilitated by Nikki Young at Storymakers

Chapter One Morning

Alex and Mave woke up at 7 o'clock in the morning. They put their dazzling slippers on and rushed downstairs to have some scrumptious breakfast. Alex, Mave, and their mum lived by the Scottish woodlands where the sun was out every morning. After a delicious English breakfast, they went to brush their teeth and put some summer clothes on and came back downstairs.

"Alex, do you want to do some woodland crafts or bake together?" Mave asked.
"Of course. I would love to do woodland crafts with you," Alex replied. As Alex made a mouse out of crafts she said,

"Mave, what has gotten into you today? You normally just want to read a book."
Mave shrugged as she did a hedgehog craft. "You have been wanting to do crafts with me. How about we do baking after this?" asked Mave.
"I would love that!" said Alex.

They looked through the cookbook and chose blueberry muffins. "I'll go get blueberries from the garden!" said Alex. While she collected blueberries, Mave found the rest of the ingredients. Alex mixed all the ingredients together and Mave put the mixture in the baking tin. Alex and Mave both put the muffins in the oven. While they waited for the muffins, they played some games. When the blueberry muffins were ready, they sprinkled ground almonds to decorate them. They gave one to their mum to taste the freshly baked muffin. Mum said, "These are amazing girls! Thank you. Why don't you go and play outside in the forest? It's a beautiful day. I'll make a picnic for you to take."

Chapter Two
Something Strange

Alex and Mave went out to the forest and made some animal shelters, then foraged for some unusual twigs, stones and bark. Suddenly, Mave shouted, "Look! I found an M shaped twig. It looks like a snake!"
Then Alex shouted, "Look! I found a heart shaped stone!"
Mave and Alex heard something rustling behind the bush. Mave told Alex to come quietly and they saw a baby, mummy, daddy and sister deer family eating berries. It was a beautiful sight but it made them feel hungry. Alex looked through the picnic bag Mum had made for them. It had fruits, bread and butter and their favourite orange juice.

As they were packing up, Alex saw a little brown mouse. The mouse was twitching his nose and staring at the apple Alex was eating, so she threw a little piece of apple towards it. The mouse waved at Alex and started running away, so she followed it.

Mave ran after Alex, who was running faster and faster to keep up with the mouse. Suddenly, they arrived at a clearing, where the mouse disappeared. Here, there was a tree stump shaped just like the little mouse they were chasing. It was decorated with moss, pebbles, coloured rocks and leaves of orange, brown, green and yellow.

Chapter Three
The Stump

As they looked closely, the leaves began to swirl, forming a door in the stump. Alex and Mave could not believe what they were seeing and their jaws dropped open. The pebbles were turning into pearls, which shone like night stars. Alex was mesmerised and whispered, "This is magical!" and she reached her hand forward to touch the door before Mave could stop her.

"No! No! No! Alex, don't touch it!" screamed Mave but it was too late. The door was pulling Alex into the tree and Mave had no choice but to go after her sister. As she was diving in after Alex, Mave called, “Alex! Where are you?” But there was no answer.

Chapter Four Arrived

The sisters found themselves in a park in front of a Disney Cinderella castle. Mave was very confused and she asked, "Where are we, Alex?”
Alex screeched in delight, “I can’t believe it! We are in Disneyland! We always wanted to come here!”

Alex and Mave sprinted into the park, which was decorated with beautiful flowers, fountains and hedges in the shape of Mickey Mouse! A parade of characters was waving at them and singing Alex and Mave’s favourite song ‘You’ve Got a Friend in Me’ from Toy Story.

Alex ran to the closest ride, which was called 'Chip and Dale Conker.' They sat on a conker and the ride began to spin around, making them feel so dizzy. They started to scream, but they could not stop laughing. Mave said, "It is my turn to choose a ride now! I want to go on an Aladdin ride!" They sat on a flying carpet and put a secure seatbelt on. All of a sudden, the carpet flew up into the air and then it immediately dropped down to the ground. Mave held her sister's hand tight and screamed for her life. They went on ride after ride until they were very hungry, so they went to get some popcorn. They both chose a Micky dispenser each and it was filled with sweet & salty popcorn.

They sat down at the theatre and waited for the 'Frozen' show whilst eating their delicious popcorn. There was a tap on their shoulder and they turned around.

Chapter Five
Missing

Alex and Mave turned to see a lady who looked very worried. "My name is Kirsty. I am the manager of this show. We are missing two main actresses for it. I really need help. Do you think you could help me and perform Anna and Elsa from Frozen?" she said.
"We watch Frozen all the time and I know all the words and all the songs, of course I can do it!" Alex said. "Please can we do it together, Mave?" she continued.
"Ok," replied Mave. "I guess we could do it this once." Then Alex and Mave went with Kirsty to perform in the show.

They gasped when they went backstage. There were dazzling dresses everywhere. When they saw their costumes, their jaws dropped open. They were sparkling with beautiful ribbons and shiny fabrics. They got dressed in their costumes, Mave as Elsa and Alex as Anna. Mave had a blue dress with shiny silver diamonds and a long blue sparkling netted cape. Whereas Alex had a top and a wide skirt with sunflowers on. Mave and Alex then went to get their hair done. Mave had a long plait and Alex had a bun with a plait around it. Next they went to get some shoes and earrings. Mave chose some blue glass slippers, ice blue teardrops as earrings and a small blue sparkly necklace. Alex chose some gold glass slippers with sunflowers on them, sunflowers as earrings and a green glass necklace. They were ready for the show to start!

The lights turned on and the music started. Alex and Mave were ready to get onto the stage. The stage was beautifully decorated like the village of Arendelle. It was amazing. Mave danced very gracefully and Alex pronounced her lines very clearly. Mave sang 'Let It Go' beautifully and Alex was very good at singing the 'Do You Want To Build a Snowman' song. They were both very happy and they smiled with every step. They had so much fun that they were disappointed to end the show. However, they remembered they should go back home. They happily bowed and went backstage where they found the portal waiting for them and jumped straight through.

Chapter Six
Home

The girls landed slap-bang into their beds. They were in their pyjamas holding a program of the show they had just performed. Their mum was in the room and she said, "Where on Earth have you been? I thought you both were lost in the woods! I almost called the police. Tell me where you have been." So Alex and Mave told their mum what had happened, from the woods to the show, and Mum sighed and said, "At least you are safe."

saronti

STORYMAKERS

Alex and Mave are two sisters who live in the Scottish countryside. One day the sisters go out to the woods to explore. When they see a mouse and chase it till they find that he leads them to a tree stump. Alex touches it and then...